

AMC K-ION is a specialised product that is an alternative to bagged Potassium Chloride (KCL). AMC K-ION contains minute amounts of chlorides; it is composed of a sophisticated mildly cationic complex that functions much like KCL to control shale and clay activity.